

→ Majority Supports Social Media Ban For Children

Australia has passed a social media ban for teenagers and children under the age of 16, which will apply to companies including Instagram, X and TikTok. The measure is intended to reduce the “social harm” done to young Australians and is set to come into force from late 2025.

» LEARN MORE

HOOKED ON SCREENS: The Hidden Costs of Smartphone Addiction in Youth

Interview with Prof. Corrado Petrucco

Technology addiction is becoming a bigger problem day by day and brings many undesirable consequences, especially in young people. As part of the TechWell Project, which we have implemented to find innovative solutions to technology addiction, we interviewed Prof. Corrado Petrucco from the University of Padova. In this short interview, Prof. Petrucco skilfully summarises many different dimensions of the problem.

“THREE OUT OF EVERY FOUR STUDENTS ARE ON THEIR SMARTPHONES DURING LESSONS...”

» LEARN MORE

→ "Our latest blog posts are now live."

Our blog posts and informative content on technology and social media addiction are continually being published on our website.

» LEARN MORE